Family Science Day

On Saturday, March 22, BMES hosted a booth with force plate demonstration and make-shift robotic hands. This event was well attended and a lot of fun for everyone involved!

STUDENT SPOTLIGHT

SAMANTHA MAGOWO '27

Samantha Magowo is a sophomore from Zimbabwe at the University of Rochester. She has actively contributed to the campus community through various leadership and academic roles. She served as the Publicity Chair for the National Society of Black Engineers (NSBE), working to support and retain people of color in engineering.

Samantha has also been a Teaching Assistant for BME 101 and a research assistant in the Wortowich Lab at the URM C Anesthesiology Department. Additionally, she is a Student Alumni Ambassador (SAA), helping to foster engagement between alumni and the university community.

Her research interests extend beyond engineering—she has also worked as a research assistant for the Special Collections department, documenting music history. In recognition of her interdisciplinary engagement, she was awarded the Suzanne J. O'Brien Book Award.
